INTRODUCTION AGREEMENT

This introduction agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into on 1 September 2025 (the "Effective Date") between:

a. BOUNDLESS SARL, a company incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg, registered with the Luxembourg Business Registers under number B287864 and having its registered address at 24/28 Rue Goethe, L-1637 Luxembourg, represented here by Mr Milo Guastamacchia and Ms Estelle N'zoungou as duly authorised managers (hereinafter referred to as the "Company"); and

b. DMBound di Davide Massenzana operating as a sole trader under the laws of Italy, having VAT number 13625400968 and registered address at Via Vasari 12, 20135, Milan, Italy (hereinafter referred to as the "Introducer") each a "Party" and together referred to as the "Parties".

WHEREAS A: the Company offers, under its trading name 'Yooro', hosted setup and administration services for issuances by compartments of one or more Luxembourg securitisation vehicles for which it acts as general partner (the "Compartments").

WHEREAS B: the Introducer has access to individuals and entities who may require the services offered by the Company.

WHEREAS C: the Parties, being contractors independent of one another and having no conflict of interest, are interested in conducting business together and developing a business relationship between them for the furtherance of their respective businesses, through cooperation and assistance.

Now therefore, the Parties hereby bind themselves through this Agreement and covenant as per the following clauses:

1. OBJECT

1.1 The Company hereby appoints on a non-exclusive basis the Introducer, who accepts to act independently and in the best interest of the Company as an intermediary in identifying, selecting and presenting new clients to the Company which will then enter into a contractual relationship with the Company whatsoever (hereinafter referred to as "Client" or "Clients" as the case may be), without any territorial limitation, under the terms and conditions of this Agreement (the "Introduction Services"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties agree that the Introduction Services are not limited to the introduction of prospective or hypothetical clients of the Company, which services shall be regarded as a preliminary step to the Introducer's duties and obligations which shall ultimately result in the conclusion of a contractual relationship between the Company and the Clients for the Introducer to be remunerated by the Company.

1.2 By virtue of this Agreement and solely for the purpose of the appropriate performance of the Introduction Services, the Introducer shall have the right to make use of promotional and marketing materials made available by the Company.

1.3 In the exercise of its duties under this Agreement, the Introducer shall at all times endeavour to introduce to the Company Clients of good professional repute and not related to adverse media or sanctions lists. The Introducer shall perform preliminary reputational and commercial checks based on publicly available information. For the avoidance of doubt, the Introducer shall not be responsible for the performance of any formal AML/KYC, CDD or regulatory verification. All formal AML/KYC obligations under applicable law shall remain the sole responsibility of the Company and/or its appointed service providers and distributors.

1.4 The Introducer shall provide the Company with an executive summary on the Clients including identification information, AML/KYC information, background information and services requested from the Company as soon as all such information is made available to it.

1.5 Any new Compartment established by an Introduced Client shall automatically qualify as an Introduced Client for the purposes of this Agreement.

1.6 The Company shall notify the Introducer of the launch of any new Compartment relating to an Introduced Client within a reasonable timeframe and no later than 15 (fifteen) days from the agreement with the Introduced Client.

2. DURATION

2.1 This Agreement shall be valid from the Effective Date.

2.2 This Agreement shall be valid for a period of 1 (one) year and shall be automatically renewable upon the expiry of the first year for further periods of 1 (one) year each, unless either of the Parties gives 1 (one) month's written notice to the other of its intention to terminate the Agreement.

2.3 The fees indicated under clause 3.1 below shall continue to be payable for the entire lifetime of Compartments launched prior to termination as well as of those launched within a 3 (three) years period from the date of termination.

2.4 The Company is entitled to terminate this Agreement with 15 (fifteen) calendar days' notice where, based on objective and documented reasons, it reasonably assesses that the Introducer represents a reputational or AML/CFT risk. Where reasonably possible, the Introducer shall be granted a cure period of 30 (thirty) days prior to termination.

3. REMUNERATION

3.1 For the services rendered in terms of this Agreement, the Introducer shall be entitled to receive from the Company a remuneration as defined in Annex A to the Agreement.

3.2 The fee specified in clause 3.1 of this Agreement shall be paid to the Introducer, no earlier than 5 (five) business days following the receipt by the Company of any fees charged to introduced Clients. Unless the services are VAT-exempt, fees as agreed between the Parties must be regarded as net of VAT.

3.3 No other fee shall be payable by the Company to the Introducer and in particular the Company has no obligation to reimburse to the Introducer out of pocket, direct costs and other representation expenses incurred in connection with the Introducer's performance of the Introduction Services.

4. EXPRESS RESOLUTIVE CONDITION

4.1 Without prejudice to clauses 2.3 and 2.4 above, both Parties shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement if the other Party is in breach of its contractual obligations as laid down in this Agreement and fails to remedy such breach after having been notified in writing of such breach by the terminating Party and given 30 (thirty) days within which to remedy the situation.

4.2 The Agreement will be dissolved ipso jure as soon as the Introducer receives notification in writing from the Company that it desires to resort to the resolutive condition contemplated under clause 2.2.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

5.1 All materials developed by or with the participation of the Introducer specifically at the written request of the Company pursuant to this Agreement shall be the exclusive property of the Company. For the avoidance of any doubt, all pre-existing materials, methodologies, know-how, databases, contacts and business relationships of the Introducer shall remain the exclusive property of the Introducer. Only materials specifically created at the written request of the Company for the purposes of this Agreement shall be subject to assignment.

5.2 All rights pertaining to the Introducer under any contract or agreement, whether verbal or in writing, entered into by the Introducer specifically in connection with the performance of this Agreement and with any person involved in the implementation of this Agreement, which rights relate to copyright, image rights and other intellectual property rights shall be automatically transferred to the Company as from the Effective Date. Provided that, any obligations pertaining to the Introducer as a result of such contract or agreement shall remain the responsibility of the Introducer even after the Effective Date.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY AND DATA PROTECTION

6.1 The Parties agree to keep confidential all the information, marketing and promotional documentation, received and/or exchanged in the execution of this Agreement, exercising the same due diligence as if the data were their own.

6.2 Any news, information, document which directly or indirectly concerns the activity or the organisation of either of the Parties, which the other becomes aware of prior to or during the operation of this Agreement shall be treated as confidential and shall not in any way be disclosed to third parties even after the termination of this Agreement saving that information or news which becomes publicly known or which was validly notified to third parties by either of the Parties;

6.3 The duplication, reproduction or taking of information and documentation belonging to one of the Parties or its associates, collaborators or dependents by the other Party is prohibited without the consent of the former. This prohibition shall extend to all data and/or information subject to confidentiality under the Luxembourg Act of 1 August 2018 on the organisation of the National Data Protection Commission and the general data protection framework (the "Data Protection Act"). This obligation shall continue for a period of 5 (five) years after the termination of the Agreement. The confidentiality obligations shall apply on a reciprocal basis.

6.4 Furthermore, the Company shall assume responsibility for the treatment of data subject to the Data Protection Act. In the performance of its functions under this Agreement, the Introducer shall not be held liable for the infringement of any provisions of the Data Protection Act.

7. FORCE MAJEURE

7.1 Neither Party shall be held liable for failure in performing any of its obligations under this Agreement if such failure is due to any cause beyond its reasonable control including but not limited to an Act of God, inclement weather, flood, lightning or fire, industrial action, or lockouts, the act or omission of Government, any Regulatory Body or other competent authority, war, military operations, or riot (hereinafter referred to as "Force Majeure").

7.2 The affected Party shall promptly notify the other Party in writing of the occurrence of an event of Force Majeure and the estimated extent and duration of its inability to perform its obligations.

7.3 Upon the cessation of the event of Force Majeure, the affected Party shall promptly notify the other Party in writing of such cessation and shall resume performance of its obligations.

7.4 Both Parties shall use best efforts to minimise the effects of an event of Force Majeure.

8. MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 The Parties declare that they are independent of each other have no power, right and/or authority one over the other. Therefore, neither of the Parties can assume obligations and/or responsibility, implicit or express in the name and on behalf of the other Party. Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted as constituting a partnership, joint venture or contract of employment.

8.2 The Parties agree that the preliminary provisions above form an essential and integral part of this Agreement.

8.3 This Agreement may be amended from time to time by mutual agreement of the Parties. Any amendment thereof shall be executed in writing, dated and signed by the Parties hereto and such amendments shall be deemed to form part of this Agreement.

8.4 The Parties declare that they have performed all that is required of them under the Data Protection Act for the purposes of the use of confidential information.

8.5 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties hereto and supersedes any previous agreements and/or understandings, whether oral or in writing. There are no other agreements, contracts, understandings, representations or warranties either collateral, oral or otherwise, in existence between the Parties hereto in relation to matters covered by this Agreement.

8.6 The various provisions of this Agreement are severable and if any provisions or part thereof of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, null or unenforceable by any competent authority, then such invalidity, nullity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the rest of this Agreement.

8.7 Any waiver by one Party of the other's failure to comply with any obligation under this Agreement must be written and signed by the Company. Each such waiver must refer to a specific failure to comply and shall not have the effect of waiving any other failure to comply.

8.8 Neither Party, nor any of its affiliates nor any of their respective directors, officers, members or employees (each an "Excused Person") shall be liable to the other for any costs, losses, claims, damages, liabilities, expenses (including reasonable legal and other professional fees and disbursements), judgments, fines or settlements (collectively, "Losses") arising out of, related to or in connection with any act or omission of such Excused Person taken, or omitted to be taken, in connection with this Agreement, except for any Losses arising out of, related to or in connection with any act or omission that is primarily attributable to the negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud of such Excused Person. Each of the limitations and exclusions of liability set out in this Agreement shall apply in respect of any liability in contract (including but not limited to fundamental breach); liability in tort (including but not limited to negligence); liability for breach of statutory duty and liability under any other legal basis. Nothing in this Agreement shall exclude a Party's liability for anything to the extent that applicable law or regulation prohibits or limits the exclusion of liability.

8.9 The liability of the Introducer shall be limited to the Referral Fees received in the 12 (twelve) months preceding the event giving rise to liability, except in cases of fraud or wilful misconduct.

8.10 The Parties undertake to act in the utmost good faith and integrity and neither to do, nor cause to be done or to suffer any act or omission which would either frustrate the due performance of this Agreement or would be to the detriment of the other Party to this Agreement.

8.11 The Company undertakes not to circumvent the Introducer by directly or indirectly engaging with Introduced Clients without applying the agreed remuneration during the term of this Agreement and for 36 (thirty-six) months following termination.

8.12 This Agreement is personal to the Parties hereto and neither Party hereto shall assign or otherwise transfer its rights and/or obligations under this Agreement in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the other Party hereto.

8.13 It is clearly understood and agreed that the remedies under this Agreement shall not be construed as limiting or excluding any other available remedy at law.

8.14 Each counterpart copy may be executed in original copies on which the signature of each Party is affixed by hand or in electronic copies on which an electronic signature of each Party is affixed, in the form legally recognized under articles 1322-1 and 1322-2 of the Luxembourg Civil Code, in each case with the intent to sign the Agreement. In both cases each counterpart copy will be deemed an original agreement for all purposes and counterpart copies will together constitute one and the same agreement. Furthermore, in accordance with the provisions of article 1325 of the Luxembourg Civil Code, the obligation to deliver an original copy to each of the Parties hereto is not necessary as proof of the commitments and obligations of each Party to this Agreement. The delivery of an electronic copy of this Agreement directly by DocuSign or any other qualified trust service provider within the meaning of Regulation (EU) No 910/2014 to each Party shall constitute sufficient and irrefutable proof of the commitments and obligations of each Party to this Agreement in accordance with article 1322-2 of the Luxembourg Civil Code.

8.15 Each Party acknowledges that it has received all the information required for the electronic signature of this Agreement and that it has signed this Agreement electronically in full knowledge of the technology used and of its terms and conditions, and consequently irrevocably waives any claim and/or legal action challenging the reliability of this electronic signature system and/or its intention to enter into this Agreement.

9. JURISDICTION

9.1 The Parties hereby agree to make every possible effort to resolve amicably any dispute or claim which may arise out of or related to this Agreement. In the event that a dispute or claim arising out of or related to the Agreement is not settled amicably within six months from the date such dispute is recorded and signed by all Parties, it shall be brought exclusively before the courts of Luxembourg and each Party irrevocably and unconditionally consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claim or defence in any such action or proceeding based on any alleged lack of personal jurisdiction, improper venue or forum non conveniens or any similar basis. .

9.2 All communications between the Parties shall be in writing and shall furthermore be in the English language.

9.3 This Agreement shall be governed and construed under and in accordance with the laws of Luxembourg.

ANNEX A – Remuneration

Unless otherwise specified for some peculiar prospects, the remuneration of the Introducer is defined as follows:

Service	Introducer Fee
Hosted Debt Security - Issuance	A variable amount, calculated on a case-by-case basis for each Client introduced, as calculated as the difference between the Setup Fee charged by the Company to such Client, and the amount agreed from time to time with the Introducer (the "Company Net Setup Fee"), but which should be in no instance lower than EUR 20,000.
Hosted Debt Security - Admin	● For Notes issuance with a fixed Admin Fee, EUR 5,000 per annum, pro rata for the duration of the debt security issued on behalf of the Client introduced by the Introducer, and from the Launch Date as specified in the Introduced Clients Register, as defined below; ● For notes issuances with a variable Admin Fee subject to a minimum, EUR 5,000 per annum plus 10% (ten percent) of any variable amount due to the Company above such minimum, pro rata for the duration of the debt security issued on behalf of the Client introduced by the Introducer, and from the Launch Date as specified in the Introduced Clients Register, as defined below. FAs an example, if the annual Admin Fee is subject to an annual minimum of EUR 40,000 and is calculated, based on the variable remuneration terms specified in the notes issuance' final terms, at EUR 100,000 for that year, the Introducer fee shall be equal to EUR 5,000 plus (EUR 100,000 - EUR 40,000) x 10% = EUR 6,000, for a total Introducer fee for such year of EUR 11,000

All amounts above are exclusive of Value Added Tax ("VAT"), where applicable.

Any applicable fee as per the above table will be paid by the Company to the Introducer within 15 (fifteen) days from the end of each calendar semester upon receipt of a fiscal invoice by the Introducer, and in all cases only upon receipt by the Company of the respective remuneration from the Client or the entities setup on behalf of the Client. For the avoidance of any doubt, in case the Company has not yet received remuneration for the service to which the fee refers, no payment will be made to the Introducer, and it will be postponed until payment is duly received by the Company.
