5.2 The Advisor may withdraw from this Agreement at any time by providing at least 2 (two) weeks' written notice to the Company. Upon withdrawal, the Company shall promptly remove all references, materials, and information related to the Advisor from its channels, including but not limited to its website, social media, and marketing materials. Notice shall be sent to legal@yooro.io.

5.3 The Company is entitled to terminate this Agreement with a 15 (fifteen) calendar days' notice in case (i) of a change in the AML/CFT Law resulting in the Advisor's AML/KYC procedure being obsolete and not compliant anymore with the AML/CFT Law or (ii) in case where in the reasonable appreciation of the Company it assesses that the Advisor himself represents a reputational risk for the Company's business or from an AML/CFT standpoint, it being noted that the Company shall in each case motivate in its notice of termination the reasons for such a termination.

5.4 Without prejudice to clauses 5.1 and 5.2 above, both Parties shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement if the other Party is in breach of its contractual obligations as laid down in this Agreement and fails to remedy such breach after having been notified in writing of such breach by the terminating Party and given 30 (thirty) days within which to remedy the situation.

5.5 The Agreement will be dissolved ipso jure as soon as the Introducer receives notification in writing from the Company that it desires to resort to the resolutive condition contemplated under clause 5.4.

Section 6 - Disclosure principle

Both Parties agree that any public disclosure of this Agreement requires prior approval from the Company.

Section 7 – Entire agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties and supersedes all prior agreements. Amendments must be made in writing and signed by both Parties.

Section 8 – Independent contractor and collaborators

The Advisor shall act as an independent contractor. This Agreement does not establish an employer-employee relationship. Therefore, neither of the Parties can assume obligations and/or responsibility, implicit or express in the name and on behalf of the other Party. The Advisor is responsible for all taxes and social security contributions related to fees received under this Agreement. The Advisor may, at his discretion, rely on and involve his collaborators or partners to pursue objectives for the Company, provided that the Advisor remains fully responsible for the performance of their obligations under this Agreement and that he has informed the Company accordingly beforehand.

Section 9 – Confidentiality, intellectual property and data protection

The Advisor agrees to maintain confidentiality of all proprietary information received from the Company, to share such confidential information with third parties upon approval by the Company, and to comply with applicable data protection laws. Any work product resulting from the Advisor's services shall belong exclusively to the Company unless otherwise agreed in writing.

Section 10 - Force majeure

10.1 Neither Party shall be held liable for failure in performing any of its obligations under this Agreement if such failure is due to any cause beyond its reasonable control including but not limited to an Act of God, inclement weather, flood, lightning or fire, industrial action, or lockouts, the act or omission of Government, any Regulatory Body or other competent authority, war, military operations, or riot (hereinafter referred to as "Force Majeure").

10.2 The affected Party shall promptly notify the other Party in writing of the occurrence of an event of Force Majeure and the estimated extent and duration of its inability to perform its obligations.

10.3 Upon the cessation of the event of Force Majeure, the affected Party shall promptly notify the other Party in writing of such cessation and shall resume performance of its obligations.

10.4 Both Parties shall use best efforts to minimise the effects of an event of Force Majeure.

Section 11 - Severability

The various provisions of this Agreement are severable and if any provisions or part thereof of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, null or unenforceable by any competent authority, then such invalidity, nullity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the rest of this Agreement.

Section 12 – Counterparts

12.1 Each counterpart copy may be executed in original copies on which the signature of each Party is affixed by hand or in electronic copies on which an electronic signature of each Party is affixed, in the form legally recognized under articles 1322-1 and 1322-2 of the Luxembourg Civil Code, in each case with the intent to sign the Agreement. In both cases each counterpart copy will be deemed an original agreement for all purposes and counterpart copies will together constitute one and the same agreement. Furthermore, in accordance with the provisions of article 1325 of the Luxembourg Civil Code, the obligation to deliver an original copy to each of the Parties hereto is not necessary as proof of the commitments and obligations of each Party to this Agreement. The delivery of an electronic copy of this Agreement directly by DocuSign or any other qualified trust service provider within the meaning of Regulation (EU) No 910/2014 to each Party shall constitute sufficient and irrefutable proof of the commitments and obligations of each Party to this Agreement in accordance with article 1322-2 of the Luxembourg Civil Code.

12.2 Each Party acknowledges that it has received all the information required for the electronic signature of this Agreement and that it has signed this Agreement electronically in full knowledge of the technology used and of its terms and conditions, and consequently irrevocably waives any claim and/or legal action challenging the reliability of this electronic signature system and/or its intention to enter into this Agreement.

Section 13 – Governing law and dispute resolution

This Agreement shall be governed and construed under and in accordance with the laws of Luxembourg. The Parties hereby agree to make every possible effort to resolve amicably any dispute or claim which may arise out of or related to this Agreement. In the event that a dispute or claim arising out of or related to the Agreement is not settled amicably within six months from the date such dispute is recorded and signed by all Parties, it shall be brought exclusively before the courts of Luxembourg and each Party irrevocably and unconditionally consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claim or defense in any such action or proceeding based on any alleged lack of personal jurisdiction, improper venue or forum non conveniens or any similar basis.
